IMPORT TRADE CONTROL

New Delhi, the 6th July 1963

SUBJECT:—Validity of import licences for old goods—clarification regarding—

No. 73-ITC(PN)/63.—Attention of the importers is invited to the Import Trade Control Order No. 12/63, dated the 6th July, 1963, in terms of which it shall be deemed to be a condition of a licence that the goods for the import of which the licence is granted shall be new goods, unless otherwise stated in the licence.

2. Importers, who desire to import second-hand/reconditioned/disposal goods should, therefore, invariably indicate in their applications if they would like to get second-hand/reconditioned/disposal goods after satisfying themselves of the availability of the goods in the foreign countries and furnish necessary documentary evidence to that effect, so that the licence, if issued, may be suitably endorsed to cover import of such goods.

SUBJECT:—Export of Vanaspathi/Hydrogenated Oil, Refined Vegetable Oils (including Salad Oil) and Groundnut Oil.

No. 74-ITC(PN)/63.—Attention is invited to the Public Notice No. 160-ITC(PN)/62, dated the 26th November, 1962, as amended from time to time, on the above subject.

2. It has been decided that the words "and other exporters" may be inserted after the words "Manufacturer-exporters" appearing in para 2(A)(ii) of the Public Notice No. 160-ITC(PN)/62, dated the 26th November, 1962.

D. R. SUNDARAM,
Chief Controller of Imports & Exports.
